

Notes

diamond
block?

10/14/14

social studies

What did the Proclamation of 1763 do?

the proclamation prohibited colonists from moving west of the Appalachian mountains because they don't want them to build more civilizations because that would be more money.

- stopped westward expansion of APP MTS
- to keep Natives and colonist separate
- protection is expensive
- to control resources in the ORV
- to keep the colonist along the coast to tax them

How and why does government regulate trade?

To protect people and their jobs government places an Import Tax or Tariff on imports

What

delegates from 9 colonies met in NY to draft a petition

Search warrant

cause effect

the stamp act along with other Acts were not created by their own assemblies Boycotts broke out as they stop smuggling

the stamp act congress

writs of assistance